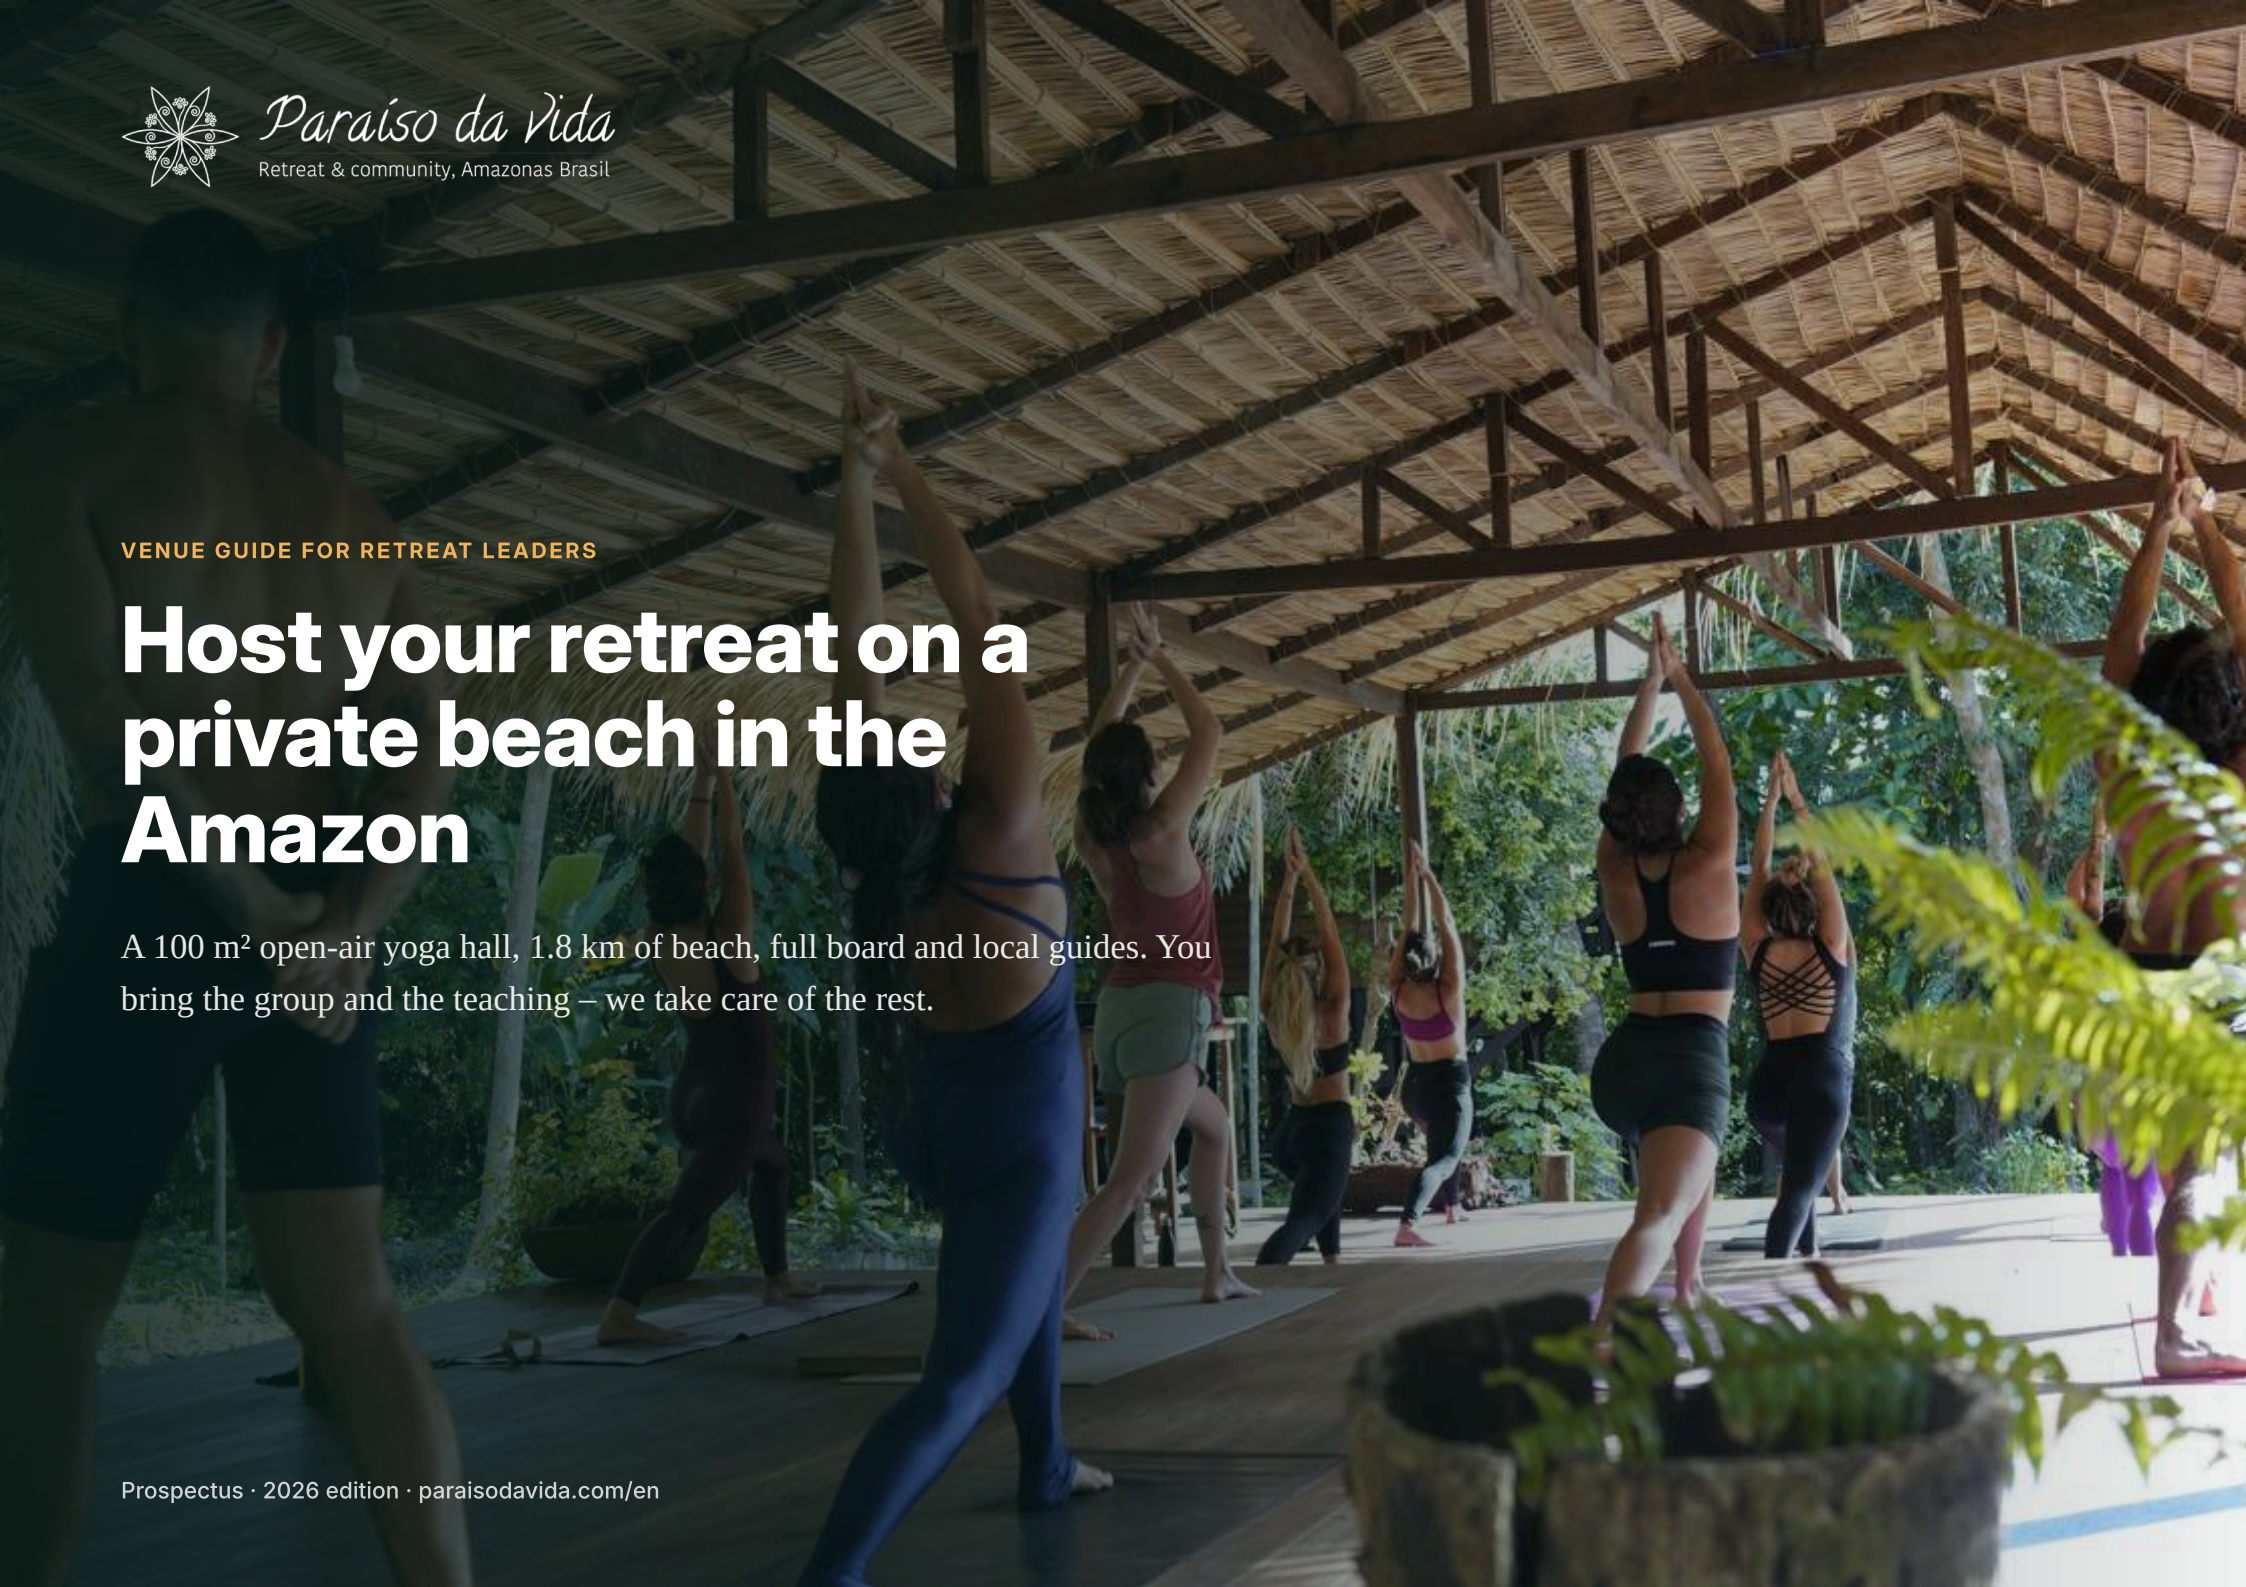
VENUE GUIDE FOR RETREAT LEADERS

Host your retreat on a private beach in the Amazon

A 100 m² open-air yoga hall, 1.8 km of beach, full board and local guides. You bring the group and the teaching – we take care of the rest.



VENUE GUIDE FOR RETREAT LEADERS

Why leaders choose Paraíso da Vida

You only pay for guests who come

Per-guest pricing and no venue fee up front – the lowest risk for you.

Real quiet

No road, no traffic, no town. Wi-Fi only at set hours; nights are silent.

Nature as co-teacher

River swims, a spring-fed lake, giant trees, sunrise over the water, fire on the beach.

Everything arranged

Kitchen team, boat transfers, guides and a coordinator on site.

26 guests max (35 beds)	6 paying guests minimum	100 m² open-air yoga hall
Free leader from 12 guests	4–7 nights	3 meals a day

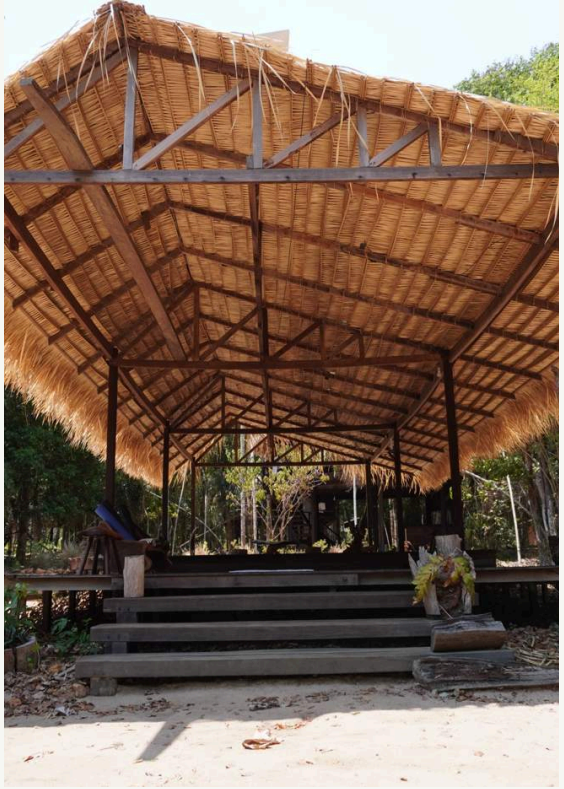
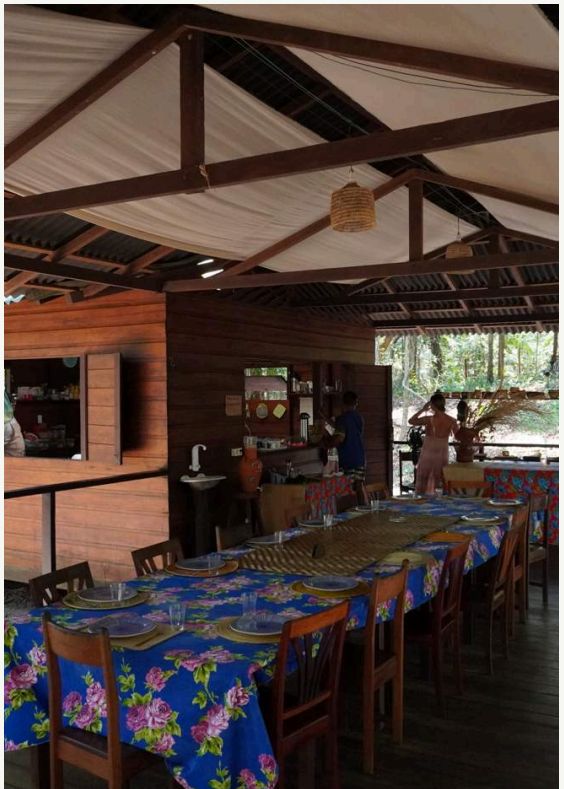
VENUE GUIDE FOR RETREAT LEADERS

The venue

- Open-air yoga hall of about 100 m² plus about 150 m² lounge, with a fire pit beside it
- Covered terraces of 30 m² on the big malocas for small-group sessions
- 1.8 km of private beach for sunrise and sunset sessions, circles and fire
- Dining hall with seating for 50–70, industrial kitchen
- Spring-fed lake 20–30 minutes' walk away – ideal for water ceremonies
- Guest malocas and cabins among the trees: 35 beds in total

From 12 participants your group has the venue to itself – no other guests or owners on site.





R$ · €

Prices – and the leader's side of it

From R$796 (about €140) per guest per night, with accommodation and three meals, as a baseline, when your group brings its own cook – a cook from us is R$1,000 per day for the group. A boat on standby at Paraíso is about R$1,600 per day incl. fuel and pilot – build it into your ticket price. July–December can be higher. Our prices are the same on all our channels.

PAYING GUESTS	LEADER
6–11	50 % off
12–23	Free
24–26	Two leaders free

Example: 12 guests × 4 nights × R$796 = R$38,208 (about €6,700) for venue and food. The leader stays free. If you charge your guests €1,200, your income is €14,400 – the difference covers your teaching, travel and profit.

Included

- Accommodation
- Three meals a day (your group brings its own cook)
- Use of the yoga hall, beach and fire place
- Local coordinator on site

Arranged at extra cost

- A cook from us: R$1,000 per day for the group
- Boat transfers Alter do Chão – Paraíso (per boat), or the river ferry from Santarém – about R$60 per person each way
- A boat on standby at Paraíso: about R$1,600 per day incl. fuel and pilot (about 10 people)
- Guided boat trips, giant trees and community visits – by agreement
- Two canoes free to borrow for individuals (not for group trips)
- Customary tip for the local team: about R$200 per guest

SANTARÉM · ALTER DO CHÃO

Getting your group here

Guests fly to Santarém (STM). We meet the group in Alter do Chão and take everyone by boat (1–1.5 hours). Ask guests to arrive in Santarém the day before and to check visa rules. No vaccines are mandatory for Brazil, though yellow fever vaccine is usually recommended for Pará. With a Vivo SIM, compatible phones can send messages by satellite (Vivo Satélite with Starlink) even without mobile signal. July–December is the dry season with wide beaches; January–June is the green, high-water season with flooded forest and fewer visitors.

River trips to hidden lagoons, waterfalls and the mightiest trees of the old rainforest – trips from one hour to a full day. Some samaúma trees have trunks so wide that many people holding hands are needed to reach around them.

River dolphins – both the pink boto and the grey tucuxi – are often seen from the boat. Eight to ten different species of monkey live around us – wild, not tame, but jumping through the trees by the cabins all day. With a local guide, fishing is excellent in both the lake and the river.

What guests and owners say

First names only · excerpts about the place · Brazilian reviews translated from Portuguese

★★★★★

“Yoga twice a day, plentiful local food, swimming in calm, warm, clear water and canoe trips through the creeks. Little monkeys right next to the bungalows. I would go back a thousand times!”

Edna · Guest, retreat group

★★★★★

“An incredible place that gives you a connection with nature, contact with the local riverside community and excellent local food – including vegetarian.”

Vitor · Retreat guest

★★★★★

“An indescribable trip, almost a turning point for me. Community-based tourism with the energy of the Amazon rainforest is something hard to put into words.”

Heloisa · Guest, Google review
